

Queen

um 'Sheer

The diagram illustrates the guitar part for "The Sound of Silence" by Simon & Garfunkel, spanning from the 1st to the 19th fret. It is organized into several sections, each with a specific key signature and tempo marking.

- Intro: Key of A major, 4/4 time. Features a simple A-D-A-D-A-D-A-D pattern.
- Verse 1: Key of A major, 4/4 time. Features a more complex A-D-A-D-A-D-A-D pattern.
- Verse 2: Key of A major, 4/4 time. Features a more complex A-D-A-D-A-D-A-D pattern.
- Verse 3: Key of A major, 4/4 time. Features a more complex A-D-A-D-A-D-A-D pattern.
- Bridge: Key of A major, 4/4 time. Features a more complex A-D-A-D-A-D-A-D pattern.
- Outro: Key of A major, 4/4 time. Features a more complex A-D-A-D-A-D-A-D pattern.

The diagram includes various musical notations, including fret numbers, accidentals, and dynamic markings like "p" (piano) and "f" (forte). It also includes a "C/D" (C major/D minor) chord diagram, which is a common substitution for the D major chord in this piece.