

From the Album 'Help!'

Words & Music by Larry Williams.

The diagram illustrates the guitar fretboard for the song "The Sound of Silence" by Simon & Garfunkel. It is organized into sections corresponding to the song's structure:

- Intro: Starts with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (Bb). The first line shows a whole note chord (A) and a half note chord (A).
- Verse 1: The second line shows a whole note chord (A) and a half note chord (A).
- Verse 2: The third line shows a whole note chord (A) and a half note chord (A).
- Interlude: The fourth line shows a whole note chord (A) and a half note chord (A).
- Verse 3: The fifth line shows a whole note chord (A) and a half note chord (A).
- Interlude: The sixth line shows a whole note chord (A) and a half note chord (A).
- Verse 4: The seventh line shows a whole note chord (A) and a half note chord (A).
- Verse 5: The eighth line shows a whole note chord (A) and a half note chord (A).

The fretboard is marked with numbers 1-7 and 9, and chords are indicated by letters A, D, and E. The diagram is color-coded with a light blue background for the fretboard and a light yellow background for the staff area.
